

THE DEMONS OF BATMGATE

HILLS

BY: ADA

Hi, my name is Ada Rose [redacted]. I have sandy blonde hair with emerald green eyes. I am going to tell you the about what happend to me a few weeks ago.

It was Wednesday 31st August 3064 when I made the mistake of going to the old abandoned Bathgate hills, a mistake that would change the world forever!

I was walking down the abandoned old road to cocklerog when I heard a creaking sound I whipped round but there was nothing there. I thought I was Imagining things so I kept walking. little did I know there was someone, or should I say some thing, was watching me from the shadowy branches above.

When I got to the top of the hill I noticed a run down rock which was slowly swaying from side to side. I noticed a map on the top of the rocking stone, Part of the map was glowing. I ran my fingers over the map slowly.

Suddenly, the map started shifting, making a picture of some sort. Then the map started disapering but the glowing light shon brighter and stronger! Then a big wall of light surrounded me and white dust started forming big animals that had been extinged for milions of years

When I looked behind me I saw that the dust was forming several stones all like the one on the hill, each one hat a white line connecting them.

Suddenly, they started cracklings, all of them, at the same time! I heard whispers, evil whispers, haunting whispers. It seemed like something was trying to escape the stones.

Then the stones burst open and the white dust fell! Once it fell I ran as fast as I could! I still felt like something was watching me but I didn't dare look back.

It was Wednesday 31st
