

By Antonia

21/9/22 The Hanted House

It was halloween night, so Alex, Finn, Max^{and} Adam all went out gasing. The boys went round all the houses in the street collecting buckets and buckets of sweets. At five o'clock at night they where invited to a halloween party at the Vue by their friend Alfie. When they arrived at the party Alfie came over to say hi! After Alfie went away Finn and Alex went into the glow in the dark disco, and Max and Adam went to get some food. At seven-thirty Alex wanted to go out to go explore the hills. but nobody wanted to.

At nine o'clock Alex finally convinced all of the boys to go and explore the Bathgate Hills, but the only thing was it was dark and a bit spooky now. When the boys got into the trees they decided to play hide and seek. Adam was picked to be the Seeker. A little while later he had found everyone except Max. The three boys went to find Max but luckily Max found them. He then told them about a spooky house that he came across when he was hiding. The boys were curious, so followed Max to the house. When they got to the house, the door opened on its own. Finn walked in, then the rest of them walked in. The house was dark, Spooky, had loads of cobwebs and there was a feeling like someone or something was going to jump out at you. Suddenly a voice was saying "get out you are trespassing", things started to smash and something was brushing past them. Then the voice said in a loud voice GET OUT!!! All the boys turned around and ran away knowing something is behind them, but kept on running. Alex, Finn, Max and Adam went back into the Halloween party at the Vue and never spoke about the haunted house again.

The End

By Antonia

Hope you liked it.