

♡ the alien ♡

it was a Dark Rainy Night in the Hills
it was silent all
you could hear was
the rain dropping
into the puddles and
branches snapping as you walk over them fastly Running through the fields feeling your heart pumping fastly in your chest Till you get lifted off the ground confused you look up and see a bright light you think you died and
as you get closer
you see its a UFO Scared u try to get back to ground screaming Hoping
and begging for someone to hear you, you soon give up
you soon go in
the UFO and then...
