Skye's Cockleroy Adventure

One Sunday Morning Skye the fox decided to go check out Cockleroy. Skye didn't live far away so she walked there. About five minutes later, Skye arrived at Cockleroy. She looked around for a bit until she saw something out the corner of her eye. It looked like a secret passage way. Skye just ignored it and went on.

About five seconds later, Skye turned around and came back through the passage way. It was an empty cellar with a book on the floor. Skye picked it up, it was very dusty. It had a symbol on it, it had two round balls with a line going through it like this ~~oo~~. Skye thought she recognised the symbol but she wasn't sure. After a couple of minutes looking around, Skye decided to take it home but after she came back out the sky was blood red!

Skye was scared, so she ran back home, but when Skye got back her house was gone! Skye was shaking when she heard a growl. Skye slowly turned around, it was an Ogre! Skye ran as fast as she could. She ended up running into a roundhouse. There were a family of badgers. There was a baby a mummy and a daddy. Skye told the badgers what had happened but then she remembered that she brought the book back! She reached into her pocket and it wasn't there. She looked around, nothing. Then she looked out the Window, it was on the ground but an Ogre had it! Skye froze but then she realised the Sky was going back to crystal blue and all the Ogres were disappearing. Skye looked shocked, but then she thought, she could go back and explore a bit more of Cockleroy.
