

Beetwings At Night

Beecraigs at night

One day two years ago me and my mum got dropped off at Beecraigs country park by my dad and its eleven minutes from the town of bathgate.

The trees were as tall as giants, but it was getting dark as my mum looked for her phone but it was nowhere to be found.

Soon after we made a decision we were gonna walk to the ^hBeecraigs cafe that was not too far away. Once we got there we told the manager our situation and they agreed to lend us their phone. After two minutes of it ringing my dad finally picks up the phone and said "Where are you I've been at the park for half an hour?" Then my mum said "we're at the Beecraigs cafe and just coming!"

When we got to the park we saw my dad and he was relieved.
