The Silent Hills

GREGOR

back a while back in the barnyard hill it was a quiet night the only sound you could hear was the whistle of the wind the fire swaying back and forth in synchronisation almost eerily back in the town there was a rumor going round about a large figure that went around the hills at night almost tiptoeing nobody had ever seen its face but there was one boy who was determined to see it ben

ben went into the hills in hunt to try and tame this beast he went out for hours on end chasing every sound he could hear but he was unsuccessful he started to take the path back he was very annoyed he couldn't find this monster but just as he was about to lose hope he saw a tree fall then another and another until behind the trees showed a big shadow behind them he got excited could this be the first time someone saw the beast it came closer he was standing right next to it it seemed friendly it looked at ben with the biggest dark blue/purple eyes you've ever seen that grey fur he was stunned for disbelief then the monster slowly stamped out ben ran home to tell everyone but no-one believed him
