

THE RED

EYES OF

BATHGATE

ACADEMY

By Leina

One day I went to Bathgate Academy and I was just in the last class of the day when the teacher said "That is the end of the day." So I got packed up to go home, but then I heard a noise behind me.
The beaming lights suddenly turned off and a big noise came from behind me and no one was around so I started to look around. But I saw nothing, so I started to walking to the door but then...

Big red eyes were beaming out from the dark room, it was as dark as a charcoal.
So I started running but then the door disappeared so I ran the other way, but the doors kept on disappearing.

So I ran as fast as a cheetah to the light switch and the monster disappeared.
I was so confused so I turned the lights back off and the monster came back.
So I turned the lights back on and the doors came back so I started to run back to the door and never ever left the school myself.
