Ravenking Hill

One Sunny afternoon a mother and her daughter went on an adventure to Ravenking Hill. When they were walking thought the forest they sat down to have a break. When they started to walk again inside the spooky forest they heard the trees whining like the wind.

Then they heard an animal running as fast as light. The animal they heard was half dog and half panther. It had massive brown eyes and its fur is as black as the night sky.

Then they heard the noise again. When they turned around they were face to face with the half dog half panther. They ran at the speed of light.

When the daughter called Rosie stopped. She took a big breath and looked around. She was looking for her mum. She looked left and right.

When the mum stopped she looked around for her daughter Rosie but she was nowhere to be seen. The mum was lost. She was in the middle of knowing where her daughter was lost to. She was crying her eyes out.

Rosie was looking for her mum but she couldn't find her mum. Rosie kept thinking someone was watching her. Luckily nothing bad happened to Rosie but the mum was scared. Like Rosie the mum

Just like Rosie the mum thought that someone was watching her and she thought right the panther dog was watching her and hunting her down.

When Rosie went back she ran in to her mum her mum said Rosie run run run!! Rosie didn't move an inch. 2 and a half days went by and they were still in the forest. The dog panther tried to hunt them down but it couldn't.

After 1 more day of looking for the way out they found in the end of the path they shouted. When they got out they never went back in the forest again since that day there has only been 2 more sightings. When they went back home they lived a happy life THE END
