Bathgate hills

One day I was walking up Bathgate hills with my mum and dad and we visited the park and cairnapple.

A few hours later we were walking back 3 cars drove past us we got a bit down the road and the three cars we in the car park a lot of guys jumped out on my dad two guy told him told him that he was going get killed with sword my dad said wow what have I doing there said that you cant cross private property. So me and my mum got told away by all the guy

I said to the guy we are we going he said you don't need to know I reply back say ok the others say way are u being rude so we got back to the guy house I was like what is this house to my mum she said I know we got in the house we got too to the basement for a dinner we got one piece of bread with soup so we went to bed.

The next day we got wake up at 6.30am to get breakfast for breakfast we got 1 piece of toast we got out the house the a couple of hours later we walk back house to see that are house was burnt down and my dad was lay in the back garden I said to my mum that is dad is it she said yes
