

The Scared Lizard

Once there was a lizard called Lizzie. She was a lizard that lived at Beechings. Lizzie loved the loch. Every time Lizzie was walking to the loch, she would hear this roaring noise but she would always ignore it. Lizzie had never cared about it, but maybe she should...

Sofia has a dog called Otto. Sofia loves Otto so much they go to Beechings every day. The real reason they go there is because of Lizzie. Sofia and Otto always go and see Lizzie. They are aware of the roaring sound too but they actually care. One day they were walking past and they saw a pair of eyes peaking out from behind a tree. The eyes looked like devil eyes. Sofia called it the Beechings monster. Lizzie was really scared. The monster started walking out. Lizzie started to really panic now. It started running. It picked up Lizzie by its nose.
